

ZONING BY-LAW
No. 2019-3

Note: This page is intended to be a helpful guide for landowners, development officers / building officials, and members of the general public to assist them in understanding how to use and interpret a municipality's zoning by-law regulations.

HOW TO USE THIS ZONING BY-LAW

This zoning by-law regulates the use, size, height and location of buildings on properties within Rural Municipality of Oakview. The following is a simple four-step process that may be employed to determine the uses and structures that may be allowed on a specific piece of property in a given zoning district.

Step One

What zoning district is your property located in?

- Use the Zoning Maps in Schedule "A" at the back of this By-law to determine the zoning for your property.
- Reference PART 3: Zoning Districts for a description of the intent of that particular zone.
- Look in the Development Plan and any Secondary Plan that applies to your property to confirm your proposal is supported by the applicable policies in those documents.

Step Two

What uses are "permitted uses" and "conditional uses" in your zoning district?

- Find the column with the zone of your property in the applicable Use and Bulk Table in PART 3 - Zoning Districts
- Uses marked with the letter "P" are permitted uses and may be developed once you have received a development permit and building permit.
- Uses marked with the letter "C" are conditional uses that may or may not be acceptable in a particular zoning district depending on the particular circumstances of a proposed development. Conditional uses require a public hearing process and may have extra conditions imposed on the use to make it acceptable for the location.
- Certain permitted uses and conditional uses in select zoning districts have additional use-specific requirements, check PART 4 - Additional Requirements for Specific Uses in Different Zoning Districts of this By-law to determine whether any additional requirements apply to the land use in question.

Step Three

How and where can you develop properties in your zone?

- Find the column with the zone of your property in the applicable Use and Bulk Table in PART 3: Zoning Districts
- The Use and Bulk Table provides information on allowable height of buildings and structures, required setbacks for yards, and other spatial requirements for a property.
- To understand the specific details of these requirements, you may need to reference the PART 2 - General Rules and Regulations Applicable in All Zoning Districts, PART 4 - Additional Requirements for Specific Uses in Different Zoning Districts and PART 6 - Definitions of this By-law.

Step Four

What kind of permits do you need?

- In most cases, you will need a Development Permit before you start any change in land use or any development (including construction of a building) on a property.
- Check PART 5 Administration and Enforcement - PART 5 of this by-law to see if your planned development is exempt from needing a Development Permit. If so, you may proceed with development, as long as it meets the other requirements in this zoning bylaw and other applicable by-laws.
- If you need a Development Permit, fill out a Development Permit application.
- You are responsible for finding out if any other provincial or federal regulations apply to your development, as well as any other required local permits, including a Building Permit, plumbing, electrical, demolition permits etc.

- (e) New or expanding livestock operations are deemed to be a conditional use regardless of their location when the total number of animal units (AUs) being produced, inclusive of all animal species, is equal to or greater than three hundred (300) animal units (AUs) cumulative across species. All livestock operations located in the “AG” Agriculture General Zone producing 10 or more animal units (cumulative across species) shall also be subject to the requirements of PART 4 of this by-law.
- (f) The maximum site area shall be 10 acres, unless physical features of the site, such as natural drains, shelterbelts, etc. indicate that a slightly larger site would be appropriate.

- 4.8.2 All existing lawfully established livestock operations (including feedlots, animal housing and/or manure storage facilities) which have a capacity of 300 or more animal units (cumulative across species), are deemed to be a legal conditionally approved use, and may be replaced if they are removed or destroyed, subject to the issuance of a development permit. Where such existing operations are proposed to be enlarged or expanded, the enlargement or expansion shall be subject to the requirements of the Planning Act and may require conditional use approval as specified elsewhere in this By-law. If a conditional use permit and any required variations are approved by Council, the proponent will be required to obtain a development permit from the Mid-West Planning District prior to the commencement of construction.

- 4.8.3 A conditional use order or variation of a requirement for siting and development of a livestock operation (including feedlots, animal housing and/or manure storage facilities) or for a farm or non-farm site or a designated area, approved under any previous zoning by-law will continue to be in full force and effect.
- 4.8.4 All existing livestock operations (including feedlots, animal housing and/or manure storage facilities), single residences (not associated with a livestock operation) and designated areas that do not meet the 1) TABLE 4.2: MINIMUM SETBACK DISTANCES FROM PROPERTY LINES requirements and/or 2) TABLE 4.3: MINIMUM SEPARATION DISTANCES FOR SITING LIVESTOCK OPERATIONS as set forth in PART 4 of this By-law, shall be deemed to possess a variation order for their current setback and separation distances as they existed on the date of adoption of this By-law.
- 4.8.5 Requirements for measuring the minimum separation distances for siting livestock operations as provided for in Table 4.3 of PART 4 of this By-law, shall be measured from the closest point of the feedlot, animal housing or manure storage facility (whichever is closer) to the adjacent single residence and/or designated area, as circumstances so require.
- 4.8.6 All newly siting or expanding livestock operations shall have access to (either by direct ownership or lease) and use of sufficient lands to accept the application of all of the livestock manure generated by the operation in a sustainable manner on an annual basis in accordance with the provisions of the Livestock, Manure & Mortalities Management Regulation 42/98, as amended and the Nutrient Management Regulation 62/2008, as amended.
- 4.8.7 All newly siting or expanding livestock operations (including feedlots, animal housing and/or manure storage facilities) that are 300 animal units or greater in size (not cumulative across species) are required to file an annual manure management plan with the provincial authority having jurisdiction and may be required to provide a copy of the plan to the Municipality at the request of Council.
- 4.8.8 All newly siting or expanding livestock operations (including a feedlot, animal housing and/or manure storage facilities) should not be located in a natural hazard area subject to flooding, inadequate drainage, erosion or a recurring high water table as determined by the provincial authority having jurisdiction and all such facilities must be designed in accordance with the requirements of the Livestock Manure & Mortalities Management Regulation 42/98, as amended.
- 4.8.9 All newly siting or expanding livestock operations (including feedlots, animal housing and/or manure storage facilities) should not be located on soils determined by detailed soil survey acceptable to the Province, with a scale of 1:50,000 or better, to have an agricultural capability of Class 6 or 7, or unimproved organic soils as described under the Canada Land Inventory. If detailed soil survey information is not available for the area where a newly siting or expanding livestock operation is being proposed, the applicant may be required to provide a detailed soils survey for the site at a scale of 1:50,000 or better. Where a proponent is required to provide this detained soils information, it may be possible to demonstrate that the soils are not Class 6, 7 or unimproved organic soils and may be able to support a livestock operation.
- 4.8.10 All newly siting or expanding livestock operations (including feedlots, animal housing and/or manure storage facilities) that are 300 animal units or greater in size (cumulative across species) will be subject to a provincial technical review report which will be completed and provided to Council in accordance with the requirements of the Planning Act, as may be amended from time to time.
- 4.8.11 For the purposes of determining the size of a given livestock operation, the system of “animal units” as adopted by regulation by the Province of Manitoba shall be used. The conversion factors for animal units (AU’s) are provided for general reference in TABLE 4.1: ANIMAL UNIT CONVERSION FACTORS of this PART (below), and may be altered from time to time by provincial authority having jurisdiction, without requiring an amendment to this By-law.
